United Food Bank has been a part of the Stamp Out Hunger drives since its beginning in 1993. In 2014, the community donated 107,240 pounds of food in United Food Bank's service area of eastern Maricopa, Gila, Pinal, and southern Navajo and Apache counties. That amount translated to 536,200 meals for hungry children, families and seniors.

The divisions on the issue don't run neatly along partisan lines. Libertarian-leaning Republicans have joined many Democrats in arguing that a secret intelligence agency should not be storing the records of every American phone call. Some Democrats and Republicans assert that the program is needed now more than ever, given the efforts by the Islamic State group to inspire extremists to attack inside the U.S.

There are still lots of questions to be answered, though. The SNP's whitewash in Scotland could lead to more devolution – potentially bad news for Edinburgh-based RBS and Lloyds, which, remember, said they were moving south if Scotland voted for independence. The European Union referendum is also going to be a worry as it comes closer.
