"I actually felt a lot of support, I felt there was a lot of people rooting for the movie to work, and my crew was amazing, and the cast was great, and I'm really proud of the product, I think the product tells you everything you need to know about how the shoot went. You know, I think just because it's rare doesn't mean that it's a particularly difficult or hard job to do – I mean boys do it all the time. I hope, really, that what I've done inspires other women to get behind the camera and tell more of these stories," says Banks.
